

2021 February Staycation Funtivities: For the Babes

For those of you with infants and babies, Rebecca Lemaitre (Concord parent and CFN's Family Outings Coordinator) has a wealth of ideas to share in her Joyful Parenting blog. In fact, she has outlined a day-by-day game plan to help you fill the time during the first year with your little one. Babies are naturally curious, and every interaction is learning opportunity. Fill your parenting toolbox with these easy learning interactions, cognitive games, and sensory activities so that your baby can flourish and enjoy the world around her/him.
